INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE IN PAUKTUUTIT'S STUDY:

Inuit Women's Experiences and Needs in Montreal

Pauktuutit has received funding from the Urban Aboriginal Strategy to conduct a study on Inuit women's needs, challenges and overall experience in cities in Canada.

We are looking for women who would be willing to participate in an interview (about 45-60 minutes) with Pauktuutit researchers. We are interested in hearing about your experience in Montreal, especially with: housing, family care, health care and support services, cultural and social opportunities, education and job opportunities.

In exchange for sharing your knowledge, experience and time we will provide a 25$ gift card.

DETAILS:

When: Wednesday, March 15th between 1:00pm and 7:00pm
Where: Native Friendship Centre of Montréal (2001 Boul. St-Laurent)

CONTACT: MAGALIE.QUINTAL@UOTTAWA.CA

If you're available to meet with Magalie Quintal-Marineau for a quick interview, or if you have any questions, you can e-mail her at the above address.

ABOUT US

Pauktuutit is the national representative organization of Inuit women in Canada and is governed by a 14-member Board of Directors from across Canada. It fosters greater awareness of the needs of Inuit women, advocates for equality and social improvements, and encourages their participation in the community, regional and national life of Canada.
